Robbed Mother-in-Law.
George Haynes held in $200 Bonds for Lebanon Theft—Taken to Norwich Jail.

George Haynes of Windsor, who was arrested by Captain Richmond Thursday evening, and held in the local station house until Friday morning, when he was turned over to the Lebanon authorities, was arraigned in that town before Justice of the Peace E. P. Burns on the charge of theft. He pleaded guilty and was bound over to the superior court under $200 bonds. Haynes was taken to the county jail at Norwich Friday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Noyes.

Mrs. Martha Burnham of Lebanon entered a complaint with the police that her son-in-law, George Haynes, aged 26, of Windsor, who had been visiting her, cleared out with a pocketbook containing $2.

Haynes came to the city, not a shave and then went into a lunch room, and there the captain arrested him. The money was found intact. Haynes in the divorce case of Candace Young vs. Charles E. Young of Young street, this city, was next called. Attorney S. B. Harvey represented Mrs. Young and her husband made no appearance. Much of the evidence was taken of a character unfit to print. After hearing the case, Judge Robinson granted a decree upon the two grounds alleged and ordered the husband to pay alimony of $700 and further ordered that the same be paid within thirty days. The divorce was obtained on the grounds of adultery and cruelty.

Mrs. Young said that she left her husband more than a year and a half ago, because of his infidelity. Her attention to Mrs. Norton Herrick and for the reason that he had also abused her by kicking her. One occasion he had broken in the door of the house with an ax and then pulled the bed, upon which she was lying, to pieces. She told of his having threatened to kill her and of his having threatened to visit Mrs. Herrick. She testified to the fact that her husband and Mrs. Herrick are living together at the Young home in Pleasant street, and that she had often seen them riding and walking together and at the moving picture show.

Husband.
Norton Herrick testified that he was the husband of Nellie Herrick and that she was now living with Young at the Young place on Pleasant street, and that before she went to live with him he visited their home on Center street often. When he remonstrated with her for going around with Young she had replied that she did not care what was said about it, as Mr. Young was a good friend of hers. He said that he had been to the front of the Young place to see his children, who were living there with their mother. He had seen things in his own home that looked suspicious before his wife had gone to live with Young.

A number of other witnesses testified to having seen Mrs. Herrick and Young together. Attorney E. C. Chapman testified that he considered the Young property on Pleasant street worth $4000 and that there was a mortgage of $2000 on it.

Judge Robinson then gave his decision. Court was adjourned until next Tuesday at Putnam.

Notes.
Friday, the local police made their first appearance in winter uniforms. Blue helmets and three-quarter length dress coats; later when the weather gets colder, caps will be worn instead of helmets.

Patrick J. Dobran, manager of the Boston American league team, was in this city a few minutes Friday. He was a passenger on the 4:07 p. m. express. He was recognized by only a few. He is on his way to attend the annual meeting of the minor league teams at Memphis, Tenn., next week.

Persons.
Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Tryon and Miss Tryon are spending a few days in New York.

Deacon and Mrs. Charles N. Fenn were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram W. Fenn of Windham street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Leonard left on Friday afternoon for Mystic to visit their son, Dr. George S. B. Leonard.

DANIELSON

Fred C. Burroughs Re-elected—First Snow Squall on Friday—Agricultural Society to Meet—Pioneers Want New Hose Wagon.

Superior court will not be in session in this city again for two weeks at least. On Friday Judge Robinson decided to go to Putnam next week, when he will hear several cases. He is to be tried before a jury. He announced that he had an engagement for next week Friday, so there could be no court calendar session, so he assigned a number of court cases for trial at Putnam, week after next, here. He will return to this city later to hear cases and he said that he would stay here until December 7 if there is enough business to warrant his coming.

Short Calendar Business.
When Putnam assignments had been made, short calendar business was taken up.

In the case of Central Vermont Railway company's appeal from the decision of the railroad commissioners relative to the elimination of the grade crossing at Camp Station, Town Council A. J. Bowen announced that he had consented to allow the matter go over until the next short calendar session, as the railroad company was unable to appear.

With reference to case of Charles B. McFarlane vs. the Industrial and Manufacturing company of Danielson, which is now in the hands of a receiver, court ordered an answer filed by the defendant's attorney within a week so that the pleading can be closed and the case be placed on the trial list.

No Divorce Decree.
In the divorce case of Ida M. Beaudin vs. Maderick Beaudin, court ordered a further notice published, as the whereabouts of the defendant are unknown.

Attorney George W. Melony told the court that having talked the matter over with the State Attorney, he had decided that the case should be dismissed. The case of the Industrial and Manufacturing company of Danielson, which was summoned as a witness in the case of McFarlane vs. the Industrial and Manufacturing company, was not the right procedure as the case had been disposed of, and in order to bring him before the court, he was ordered to serve same at once.

Decree and Alimony Granted.
The divorce case of Candace Young vs. Charles E. Young of Young street, this city, was next called. Attorney S. B. Harvey represented Mrs. Young and her husband made no appearance. Much of the evidence was taken of a character unfit to print.
